

HDSLGC Statement of Compliance – GDPR

Personal data may be legally collected and used if it is necessary for a legitimate interest of the organisation using the data, if its use is fair and consistent and does not adversely impact the rights of the individual concerned.

What type of information is collected from you?

The personal information that we collect is your name, address, email address, Competition Handicap & Club.

How is your information used?

We may use your information to:

- Contact you about HDSLGC competitions & other events (AGM etc).
- Ensure accurate collection of annual membership subscription.
- Seek your views or comments on the services we provide.
- Send you communications which you have requested and that may be of interest to you.
- We review our retention periods for personal information on a regular basis. If a member has not renewed for 1 year her details will be destroyed.

Who has access to your information?

Your Club Representative, HDSLGC Secretary & HDSLGC Competition Secretary have access to your information

We will not sell or rent your information to third parties nor will we share your information with third parties for marketing purposes.

Your choices

You have a choice about whether to receive information from us. If you do not want to receive email communications from us concerning HDSLGC events, you should advise your local Club Representative &/or the Secretary of HDSLGC.

You have the right to withdraw consent at any time; if you choose to do so you should contact your Club Representative &/or the Secretary of HDSLGC.

How can you access and update your information?

You have the right to access your information by contacting your Club Representative &/or the HDSLGC Secretary. The accuracy of your information is important to us. We make every effort to ensure that contact details are updated as advised & we would encourage you to let us know as soon as possible if your details change.

Security precautions in place to protect the loss, misuse or alteration of your information

When you give us personal information, we take steps to ensure that it's treated securely. Our volunteer committee officials work from personal computers, using the Internet, and this can never be guaranteed to be 100% secure. However, we encourage everyone to maintain up to date antivirus software & take every normal precaution to prevent unauthorised access to your information. As a result, while we strive to protect your personal information, we cannot guarantee the security of any information that you transmit to us, and you do so at your own risk. Once we receive your information, we make our best effort to ensure its security.

Changes to this Statement of Compliance

We reserve the right to update our Statement of Compliance at any time and you should check our website periodically (www.hdslgc.co.uk). Your continued use of the service after we post any modifications to the Statement will constitute your acknowledgement of the modifications and your consent to abide and be bound by the modified Statement of Compliance.
